

Titanic

Oh, they built the ship Titanic, to sail the ocean blue, and they thought they had a ship the water would never go through,
but the Lord's allmighty hand said, "That ship would never land".
It was sad when that great ship went down.

It was sad, it was sad.

It was sad when that great ship went down.

Husbands and wives, little children lost their lives.

It was sad when that great ship went down.

Oh, they sailed from England's shore 'bout thousand miles or more,
when the rich refused to associate with the poor,
so they put them down below, where they'd be the first to go.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

It was sad, it was sad....

Oh, the boat was full of sin, and the sides about to burst, when the captain shouted, "Women and children first!"
Oh, the captain tried to wire, but the lines were all on fire.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

It was sad, it was sad....

Oh, they swung the lifeboats out o'er the deep and raging sea, and the band struck up with "A nearer my God, to thee".
Little children wept and cried, as the waves swept o'er the side.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Denne vise er bemærkelsesværdig munter på trods af at den handler om Titanics undergang hvor en mængde børn blev faderløse og en hel del kvinder blev enker.
